F.I.C.C. invites its members and campers the world over to celebrate this day in the company of like-minded people with special club events or camping with family and friends, emphasizing the virtues of relaxing in nature, or with games and sport since camping is not only a hobby but a way of life that binds people of all nations together as friends.

2026 Celebrations

This year, the World Camping Day will be celebrated officially in Karpfham - Bad Griesbach/Southern Germany, during the 96th International F.I.C.C. Rally, a landmark event that brings together campers, caravanners and motor- caravaners from many countries.

F.I.C.C. encourages all its members, federations, and friends of the outdoors to mark this day, in big events or in small gatherings, by a lake, in a forest, or at your favourite camping spot.

Let's celebrate together.
Let's honour our love for nature.
Let's build bridges of friendship across the world.
Celebrate with us. Celebrate friendship and outdoor life.
